

MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

Introduction

This Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement is a response to Section 54(1), Part 6 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and relates to actions and activities for the financial year ending 31 December 2021.

Rocket Lawyer UK Limited ('the Company', 'we', 'us' or 'our') is committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking violations in its own operations, its supply chain, and its products. We have zero-tolerance towards slavery and require our supply chain to comply with our values.

Organisational structure

The Company is the UK subsidiary of Rocket Lawyer Incorporated based in the United States of America. We operate in the online legal technology sector and are one of the most widely used legal services in the world. For more information about us, please visit our website: <https://www.rocketlawyer.com/about-us.rl>.

Due diligence

Due diligence is undertaken to ensure that we only engage with reputable suppliers, and Company employees are required to assist with due diligence during the onboarding process. Any concerns raised by our employees are handled by our legal department.

Risk and compliance

Due to the majority of our supply chain being based in the UK, US and in lower risk industries, such as internet software and services, our exposure to risk is low. We do not act as a producer, manufacturer or retailer of physical goods and have no supply chains in relation to such activities.

We expect all of our suppliers to meet legal and ethical standards as a condition of doing business with us.

The statement was approved by our board of directors.
